THE BIG PICTURE

200 Orphanages Worldwide currently has 21 Organizations represented in three continents with about $2.7 million requested to complete building projects that will serve the orphans, both for schools, clinics and housing.

How To Eat An Elephant

The Appeal: Breaking It Down Into Bite Sized Pieces...

Someone asked once how you eat an elephant. The reply? One bite at a time. So that's how to approach these needs. One bite at a time.

The $2.7 million* in building projects represents about 4,000 orphans that are going to be served.

If I can inspire you all to talk to 15 of your friends and associates who would be willing and able to give $100 that's $1,500. If I can find 2000 people just like you... all the projects will get built. It's one bite at a time.

Can you help me get the word out? If not, it's ok. I know you support the Children!
